Tuesdays - 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

October 3 - The Second Vatican Council

What is the Relationship between Scripture and Tradition?

Presenter - Fr. Frank Coady

A classic point of disagreement between the Catholic church and many Protestant churches has been that the Catholic church believes teachings that are not explicitly found in Scripture but developed over time through what we call “tradition.” Evangelical churches usually believe that teachings can only come from what is explicitly stated in the Bible.

Dei Verbum (Word of God) is a Vatican II document that has made great strides in healing this division. We will take a look at what Dei Verbum teaches in order to get a better understanding of how the church’s tradition corresponds to the Biblical word.

October 24 - Scripture

How to Understand the Bible Better, especially the New Testament

Presenter—Fr. Reggie Urban

Throughout history, people have been encouraged to read and study the Bible. Yet, how many people have begun at the beginning of Genesis, only to become discouraged and quit? A basic understanding of why and how the Bible is to be used and read will be shared.

November 14 - Synod

How do you spell “synodality”?

Answer: l-i-s-t-e-n-i-n-g.

Presenter—Fr. Robert Schremmer

The Synod is still going on. While it has moved on to a gathering in Rome, synodality remains. “Tuesdays with the Diocese” offers an invitation to listen to one story and consider what our story is. It offers an opportunity to continue listening to the Spirit as we listen to others.

Pope Francis reminds us synodality has a soul that is the Spirit who speaks and listens. We listen to others share their story...not hear them tell their story. There’s a difference. To listen and truly hear we need prayer.

To share our story, we need prayer to notice the moments when we’ve experienced God’s presence in our life and in the world. To notice what experiences inspired us to love or grieve or act.
