
The Reward

“The measure you give will be the measure you get back.” (Luke 6:38)

It is human to assume that if we give, we get. It is true that the more we give, more blessings are received. These blessings flow from an abundance that only our God can provide.

The reward can be even more profound. In giving back some of what we have been given and opening ourselves to our Lord, we are drawn to follow what Jesus taught. The ultimate reward is a life not without struggle, but a life of fulfillment and peace that our God will see us through. The reward is an abundance that only an open spirit can see.

The Diocese of Dodge City Stewardship Office is dedicated to helping each parish family live a stewardship life and to create a parish people can fall in love with. For more materials contact the office of stewardship.

“As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied graces” (1 Peter 4:10).

Why Give?

Why should I give anything to God?

Have you ever ask yourself this question? The question is as old as time. The answer to this question is the same age as the question itself.

Stewardship to some means meeting the needs of our local parish. This view is brought forward when our Priest asks for lay ministers or speaks of a budget deficit.

The true message stewardship that speaks to the heart of God's church can be easily blurred. The wisdom stewardship speaks to us is our need to give versus the church's need to receive.

The Giving Example

The question has been asked, "Why should I give time, talent, and treasure?"

Consider for a moment what is written in the Gospel of John. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16)

God was the first giver. Not only did God give us life, he also gave us His son Jesus. Would you be willing to give your only child so another may live?

This level of giving is beyond the grasp of many people. Can we reach the example set by God our Father?

There is hope!

Made to Give

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness;" (Gen 1:26)

God made us in his image, each one of us has the perfect mark of our God on our souls. Imagine for a moment God knitting our DNA. In that knitting, he sews himself permanently into our lives.

God, is the ultimate giver, therefore, we were made....to give.

We were designed to be generous in all aspects of living. Our giving of Time, Talent, and Treasure pieces together our spiritual puzzle that once put together, makes us more like God. We become more like the God who made us, more holy.
