ST. MICHAEL'S BRAIN TEASERS

TEASER THE FIRST: The following two 4x4 grids each contain a 12-letter word. Each word is formed by a chain of letters. A word can begin with any of the letters. The second letter of a word is adjacent (either horizontally, vertically, or diagonally) to the first letter, the third letter is adjacent to the second, and so on. No letter can be used more than once. Four letters in each grid will be unused.

TEASER THE THIRD: Fresh and invigorated after completing her algebra homework, Mimi appeared at the living room door. She held a piece of paper covered in scribbled numbers, 'm's, 'd's, and equations. "Dad!" she announced. "Five years from now you'll be only double my age!" "Amazing!" Dad almost looked up from the TV, but knew she hadn't finished. "But five years ago, you were triple my age then!" "I suppose in another ten years we'll be the same age," Dad grunted, changing channels.
How old is Mimi?
